PLACE OF PROPOSED MARRIAGE/CIVIL PARTNERSHIP.....

When lodging notice of your intention to marry/form a civil partnership in Scotland, you must provide the registrar with information regarding your immigration status in the United Kingdom, and evidence to support that information. The registrar will be unable to accept your form M10 or CP10 unless this declaration form is properly completed and submitted with the appropriate evidence.

Under provisions in the Immigration Act 2014, you should be aware that if you are not a ‘relevant national’, or do not have appropriate immigration status, or the relevant visa for a marriage/civil partnership in the United Kingdom, your proposed marriage/civil partnership will be referred to the Home Office for investigation.

STATUS		Please tick ONE box

If you have applied for EUSS status before 1st July 2021, but your application has not yet been finally determined, please supply either your share code confirming your Certificate of Application (COA) in the space above or confirm that you are supplying along with this form a COA relating to your application.

Where you are not an Irish citizen and do not have EUSS status, please confirm that you have applied for EUSS status and that the application has not yet been finally determined:

Section G: Evidence of immigration status:

Please confirm the evidence of your immigration status that you are supplying along with this form e.g. Passport with vignette endorsed to show 'Indefinite Leave to Remain'.

Section H: Evidence that you hold a marriage visit visa or fiancé visa:

Section I: If you have applied for a marriage visit visa or fiancé visa but the application has not yet been decided please provide details of when your application was made and the place where it was submitted:

You must now complete section J.

Section J: Please list, in full, any former names or aliases you have been known by.

If you have completed Statement C or D overleaf, you must provide a UK passport style and size photograph for both parties to the marriage which has been taken no more than one year before the date on which you give notice.

I hereby declare that the information provided on this declaration form is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief:
